WELCOME TO ARNOLD HOUSE

Dear Applicant

Thank you for your interest in the role of Head of Classics/Latin Teacher at Arnold House.

The School was founded in 1905 in St John's Wood. It is an independent preparatory school for boys from 3 to 13, and a member of IAPS (the Independent Association of Preparatory Schools). In 2021 we opened a Pre-Prep department a short walk away at Marlborough Place. We now have 370 boys on roll across 10 year groups. Each year group is split into two forms.

A thriving school, Arnold House aims to provide an education of breadth and excellence and to serve the boys' best interests across the ability range. We aim to do so in a supportive, purposeful and stimulating environment, to provide a foundation for the boys' development within a generous Christian ethos, to help them mature into well-rounded individuals by developing their enjoyment of music, the arts and sport, and to promote good citizenship through the virtues of courtesy and industry. The cultural identity of the school is diverse and enriched with an array of backgrounds being represented throughout.

The School values a supportive family ethos and operates in a relaxed, though structured manner, ensuring that all boys are cherished and achievements recognised and rewarded. Academically, sights are set high with the object being for each boy to develop his talents.

As a registered charitable trust, Arnold House is overseen and supported by an experienced Governing Body.

Arnold House underwent an Educational Quality Inspection in November 2022, in which it was reported that both the quality of pupils' academic and other achievements and the quality of pupils' personal development is excellent.

THE CLASSICS DEPARTMENT AND THE ROLE

The Arnold House Classics Department offers Latin to all pupils between Years 6 and 8 and Ancient Greek for some in Years 7 and 8.

The aims of the Classics Department are to:

- foster an interest in and to increase the awareness of the classical world around us
- introduce boys to the great myths of the Greek and Roman world
- make boys aware of classical roots in English and the Romance languages
- increase boys' knowledge of English grammar and their general word power
- help boys think in a logical way

In the Spring Term of Year 7 boys have the opportunity to go on a trip to Rome with the Classics Department to support their learning about the classical world and to experience the awe and wonder of the architecture that has endured for millennia, as well as to enjoy pizza, ice-cream and other Roman delights.

Summary of the Role

We are looking for an enthusiastic and inspiring teacher to lead the Classics Department and to teach Latin to boys from Year 6 to 8. The boys are highly motivated and enthusiastic.

It would be beneficial if, in addition to Latin, you were able to offer Ancient Greek, although this is not an essential requirement for the role.

The role is part-time at three days a week.

Arnold House offers excellent benefits including a competitive salary, access to our contributory pension scheme, free lunches during term time, access to the cycle to work scheme and a good proportion of non-contact time.

Generous benefits reflect the fact that teachers 'go the extra mile' in a school such as ours by contributing to sports, drama productions, trips, clubs and other activities. All teachers take a share in supervisory duties and enjoy the benefit of a number of non-contact periods each week which they can use for lesson preparation, marking etc.

Staff are appraised regularly and are encouraged to reflect on and develop their practice.

Arnold House is committed to promoting and protecting the mental and physical wellbeing of all our staff.

JOB DESCRIPTION

Arnold House School is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The Head of Classics/Latin teacher is responsible for the following:

Teaching

- Planning and preparing courses and lessons;
- Teaching according to the educational needs of the pupils; setting and marking work to be carried out by the pupils in School or elsewhere;
- Assessing, recording and reporting on development, progress and attainment of pupils.

Other Activities

- Promoting the general progress and wellbeing of individual pupils and of any class or group of pupils;
- Providing guidance and advice to pupils on educational and social matters;
- Making records and reports on the personal and social needs of pupils;
- Communicating and consulting with the parents of pupils;

- Communicating and cooperating with people or organisations outside School;
- Participating in meetings arranged for any of the purposes described above;
- Accompanying pupils on trips away from the School.

Assessment and Reports

- Providing or contributing oral and written assessments, reports and references relating to individuals and groups of pupils.

Appraisal

- Participating in arrangements for teacher appraisal.

Training and Development

- Reviewing regularly your methods of teaching and programme of work;

- Participating in arrangements for your professional development.

Educational Methods

- Advising and cooperating with members of the leadership and management team and other teachers on the preparation and development of courses of study, teaching materials, teaching programmes, methods of teaching and pastoral care arrangements.

Behaviour, Health and Safety

- Maintaining good order and behaviour among the pupils and safeguarding their health and safety both when they are on the School premises and when they are engaged in authorised school activities elsewhere.

Safeguarding

- Promoting and safeguarding the welfare of children and young persons.

Administration

- Providing administrative and organisational tasks related to such duties as are described above;
- Attending assemblies, registering the attendance of pupils and supervising pupils.

Management (for heads of department and above only)

- Contributing to the selection for appointment and professional development of other teachers and non-teaching staff, including the induction and assessment of new and probationary teachers.
- Co-ordinating or managing the work of other teachers.
- Taking part in the review, development and management of the curriculum, organisation and pastoral functions of the School.

Flexibility

- You may be occasionally required to undertake other reasonable duties.
